

The civil rights struggle is over in the United States? True or false

African Americans are the only people to struggle for equality. True or false

We still have discrimination and racism today. True or false

Segregation is a thing of the past . True or false

Racism and discrimination is only in the United States. True or False